

Hate You, Hold Me Blues

© 1994 Mary E. Costello

One night you say you're gonna love me
The next you're gonna leave
Mixed messages all the time
Can't get, can't get no reprieve
I've got the Hate You, Hold Me Blues

I come home late from work at night
And you're...sweet as can be
But when I wake up in the morning
You say, "Get away from me"
Oh, I don't know what to do
I've got the Hate You, Hold Me Blues

What can I do? I've given everything to you
But you just run hot and cold
I've given you my word, to always be true to you
But now I'm not so sure

You asked me to marry you
Then said, you needed time
"It's going on 14 years now"
Cant' you, can't you make up your mind?
I've got the Hate You, Hold Me Blues

What can I do, I've given everything to you
But you just run hot and cold
My mama says, that I should be through with you
But I just can't let go

(Just drums and vocals)
"My therapist calls it co-dependency"
My mama calls it kind
"My friends all say I'm CRAZY"

All I know is I'm losing my mind
I've got the Hate You, Hold Me.....Blues
